Commission on Athletics

California Community College Athletic Association

CONSTITUTION AND BYLAWS 2009-2010

California State Education Code Section 78223

The governing board of a community college district may enforce rules and regulations relating to eligibility for and participation in intercollegiate athletics. The rules and regulations may include, but are not limited to, those adopted by a voluntary association, one of whose purposes is to govern intercollegiate athletics among schools and colleges.

The California Community College Commission on Athletics and Athletic Association Constitution and Bylaws, together with the Sport Championship Handbooks, constitute the policies and procedures of the California Community College Commission on Athletics and Athletic Association, which govern the administration of California community college intercollegiate athletics.
