1 CCCIO

COA BOARD COMMITTEES

The Commission on Athletics (COA) is guided by the Constitution Article 2.5 which permits the COA to develop standing and ad hoc committees in order to complete its responsibilities. The COA Governing Board has established standing committees that are vital to the administration of intercollegiate athletics.

The COA chairperson in consultation with the COA Executive Committee and the COA Executive Director will determine committee membership.

COA ACADEMIC AND ATHLETIC STANDARDS REVIEW COMMITTEE

The AASRC is responsible to monitor and periodically review academic and athletic eligibility standards of CCCAA participants. The committee may require submission of periodic academic performance reports from CCCAA member institutions as requested by the Board.

COA FINANCE COMMITTEE

The Finance Committee is charged with examining procedures, requests, etc. that will have an impact on the COA budget. While the committee cannot affect how money is spent on each campus, part of its function should be to point out potential impact on campus budgets due to COA action.

Legislative proposals from the field having financial impact shall be reviewed by this committee after the appropriate committees (Policy, Competition, Postconference Competition Review) have reviewed the proposals and determined recommendations each will bring forward. The Finance Committee will provide pertinent information to the proposals with or without recommendations for approval. The committee will collect standard financial data to assist in decision making.
